The Gopher State Elite Umpire Camp is for the umpires who are looking to take their games to the next level. Umpires looking for the best training in the Upper Midwest are welcomed, encouraged and recommended to attend the Elite Umpire Camp. This camp is designed to allow umpires the opportunity to see live plays by the elite baseball players in the area, and be trained and critiqued by some of the elite umpires in the Upper Midwest. Instructors from last year's clinics include Jeremy Barbe, Mike Cantone, Bugsy Segal, Shawn Vellek, Andre Lanoue, Jon Moynihan, Brandon Jackson, Larry Gallagher, Adam Berg, Kirk Rall, Mike Monita, Zar Kovalov and Ken Lehner. All instructors are excited about this training opportunity and are dedicated to teaching the up-and-coming umpires of Minnesota.

Instruction to each student will include philosophy, mental approach and attitude toward baseball, including appearance and equipment. On-field training for the 2-man umpiring system will be taught, which includes proper positioning and duties of the plate and base umpire. NEW FOR THIS CAMP! Each umpire will receive a video to take home of their plate work with live commentary from the instructors at each field. Every umpire will have the opportunity to participate in live games as the plate and base umpire, where you will see the play and make the call. The Elite Umpire Camp will utilize batting cages with pitching machines so umpires can receive one on one instruction with our instructors. This camp will also cover handling game situations, balks, ejections, etc. Don't miss out on this excellent training opportunity!

Every umpire who attends the clinic will receive an Elite Umpire Camp T-shirt and their 2009 MYAS Umpire Certification which is good for an additional $4 per game for the 2009 Gopher State season. With 2009 MSHSL registration, another $1 will be added to the game total.
